

CHRYSLER CORPORATION REFUSES TO SPONSER LESBIAN PROGRAM

The following was forwarded to us by Pastor Doug Hammett <DHammett@xc.org>. It was originally dated Wed, April 23, 1997 --

Here is another company taking a good stand on the Ellen show. Read and consider.....

For those of you that may not know, "Ellen" is a television show coming out this next month that is based on the life of a lesbian. I believe Chrysler Corp. has really stuck its neck out to show the nation what it believes is right.

Because the character Ellen is "coming out" on the show this month, as well as the actress by the same name who portrays her, Chrysler Corp. is withdrawing its commercials for sponsoring that show. They are asking for telephone calls to indicate support for their corporate decision. The telephone number is 1 (800) 992-1997, and it's legit! I called immediately after receiving this email message. You will get a lot of selections to choose from when you make the call, just stay on hold and a real person will answer your call. The lady who answered after about only a minute and a half was delighted to hear from me.

I thought this information was worth communicating broadly. (Call weekdays between 8:00 a.m. & 4:00 p.m. Central Time.) Not many corporations these days seem willing to make such controversial decisions that support Biblical Morality.

Just wanted to pass along the information for those of you that may be interested in phoning Chrysler. Let's all show our support to those who are willing to stand up for what's Biblical.

BE SURE TO PASS IT ALONG TO OTHERS AS WELL!

Thanks
